

INSTANT ROOM

HARRY HEISSMANN

With his unique flair for color and fantasy, New York designer Harry Heissmann wakes up a traditional breakfast room.

Produced by ORLI BEN-DOR

Illustration by JEREMIAH GOODMAN

1. DELFO (IN PALE BLUE); POLYURETHANE

BEST FOR: Ceiling
"I could hire a team of artisans to lacquer the ceiling, or use this more affordable option. No one can touch it, so no one would know what it is...or isn't." starkwallcovering.com.

2. DIMODA (IN SCARLOTTO); PATENT LEATHER

BEST FOR: Dining chair seats
"This leather is like shiny lipstick. Every room needs a touch of red." garrettleather.com.

3. SCATTERED DOT (IN RED/BROWN); LINEN; BY TILLET TEXTILES

BEST FOR: Tablecloth
"If you dribble coffee or jam, it's a very forgiving pattern. And it's so much fun!" t4fabrics.com.

4. TWIGGY TASSEL FRINGE (IN COLOR 9300); POLYESTER

BEST FOR: Tablecloth trim
"It's nice to give things a finished edge—something I learned in my nine years working for Albert Hadley." houles.com.

5. MONACO (IN TANGERINE); LINEN, COTTON

BEST FOR: Pillows
"Such a sunny color! And it's a batik print, which I consider another texture you can layer in a room." katherinerally.com.

6. HARLEQUIN (IN MULTI); HEMP, COTTON; BY EDIT

BEST FOR: Large pillow
"The big color and big pattern looks like it's been custom-painted right on the fabric." studiofournyc.com.

7. MARENGO CHENILLE (IN ANRANCIO); VISCOSE, COTTON; BY DECORTEX FIRENZE

BEST FOR: Window-seat cushion
"As fluffy as scrambled eggs, which feels right for a breakfast room." arnitex.com.

8. DEVA (IN CELESTE); COTTON, SILK; BY DECORTEX FIRENZE

BEST FOR: Curtains
"This fabric is like a peacock feather. It's a really, really amazing color that's not always so easy to find." arnitex.com. ●